Servant Leadership

“The servant-leader is servant first. It begins with a natural feeling that one wants to serve ... as opposed to wanting power, influence, fame or wealth.”

10 Characteristics of Servant Leadership

1. Listening
 2. Empathy
 3. Healing
 4. Awareness
 5. Persuasion
 6. Conceptualization
 7. Foresight
 8. Stewardship
 9. Commitment to the growth of the people.
 10. Building a community

Our Product Offerings

Board Based Simulator

The world's first table-top simulation of climbing Mt. Everest.

Designed for corporate and organizational learning outcomes in leadership and teamwork

Everest Challenger Simulation

- Aarvi IT Services is India Licensee of Everest Motivation for conducting world's no 1 teambuilding and leadership simulation of climbing Mt. Everest.
 - Learning Outcomes of this powerful simulation are
 - Inclination towards collaborative behaviors
 - Stepping into leadership role
 - Working with sufficient but limited resources
 - inter-team and intra-team trust building

Behaviours, reactions to facilitator-driven challenges, setbacks and scenarios drive the simulation.

At the conclusion, a facilitator will help the group focus on key areas of team and leadership behaviours that need addressed, improved or simply celebrated!

Experiential Learning

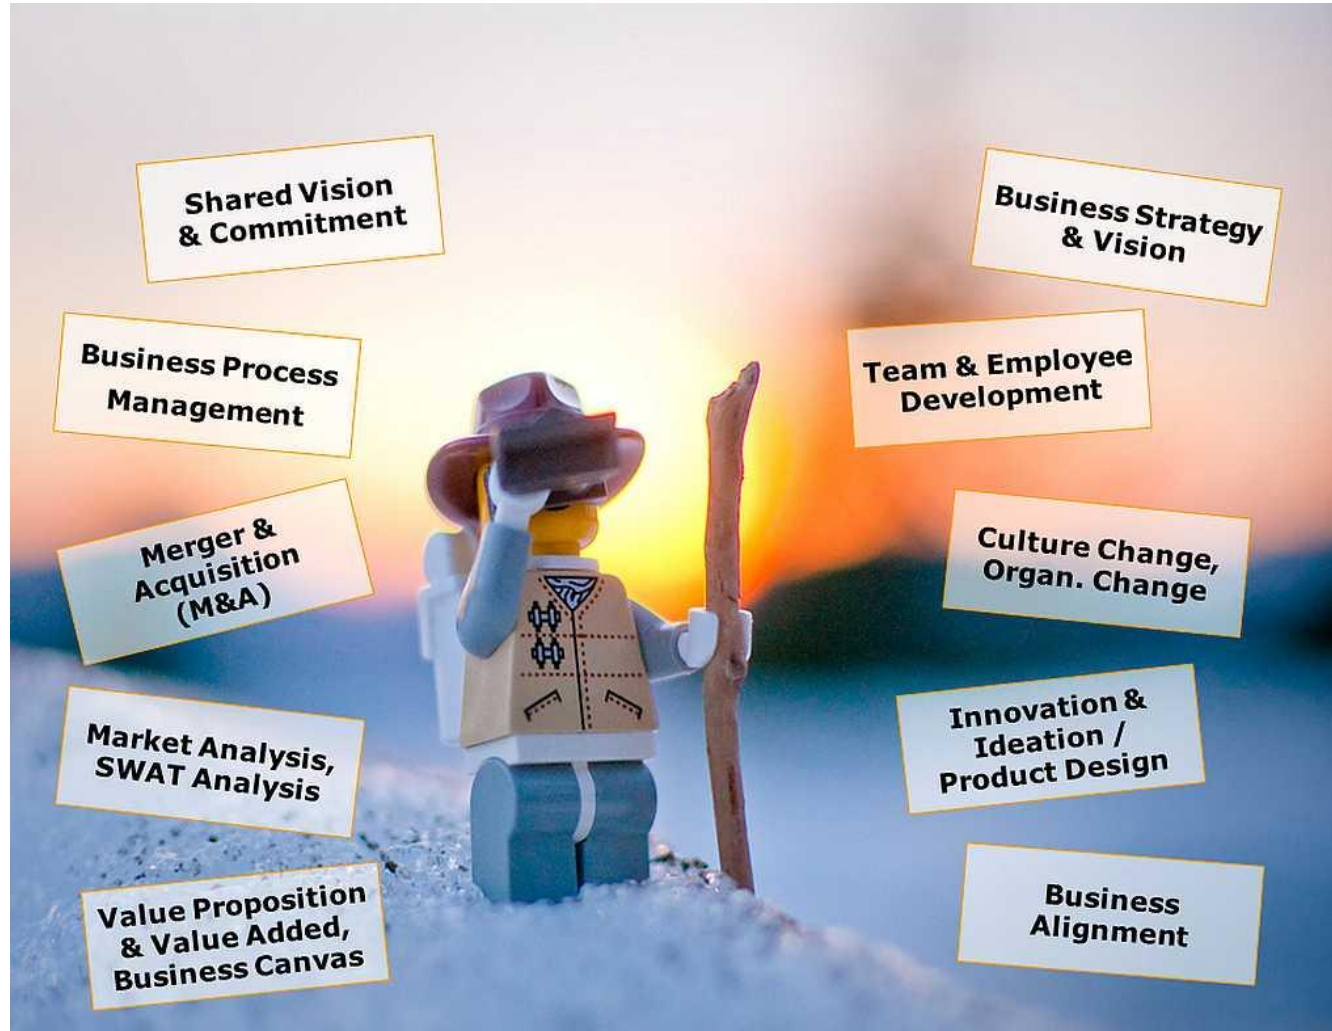

LEGO® Serious Play®

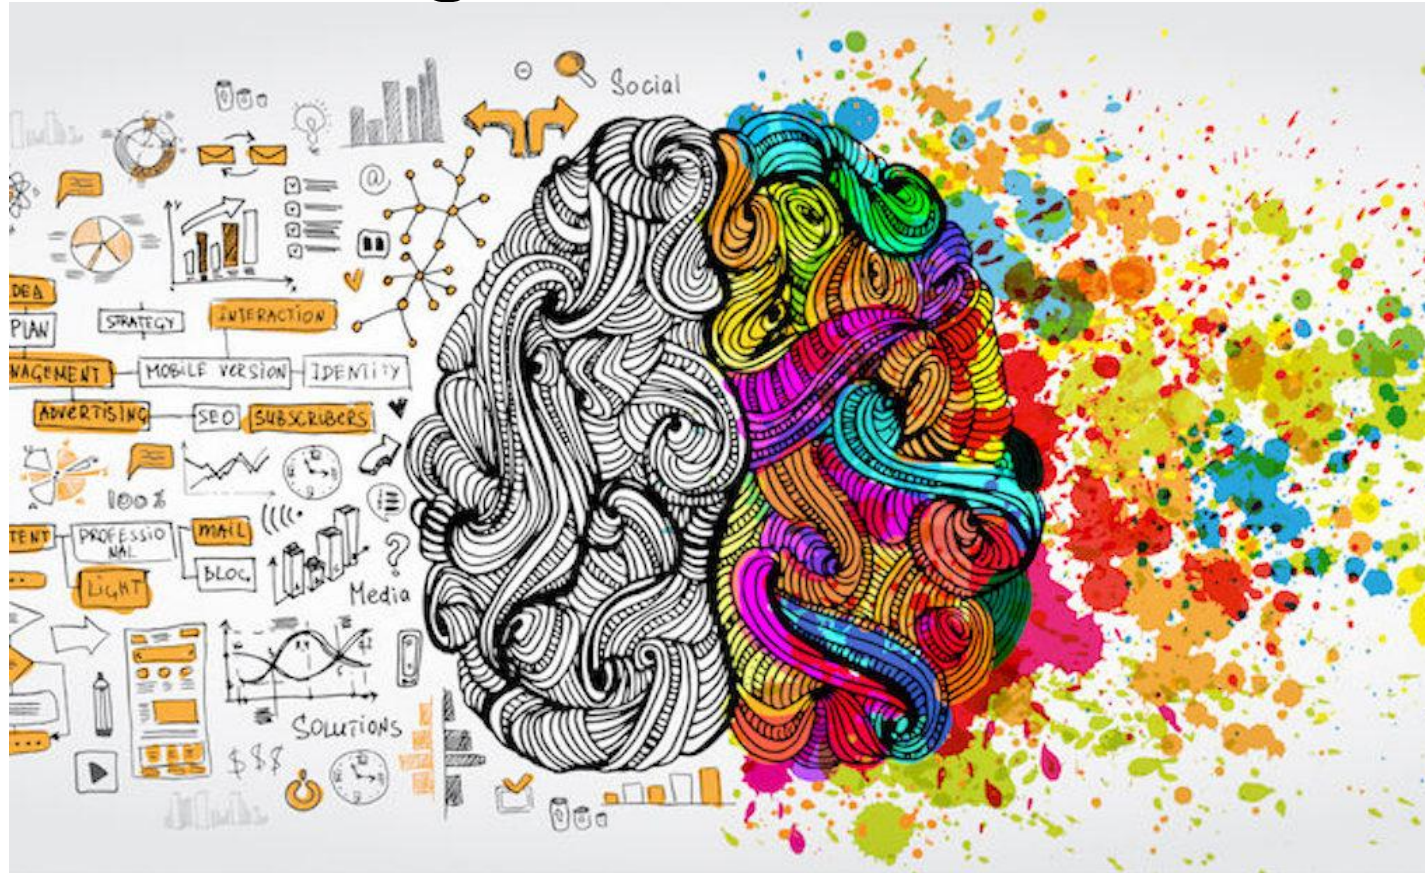

Business Solutions with LEGO Serious Play

- LEGO® Serious Play (LSP) is a facilitated method for strategic decision-making and problem resolution in business environments. The workshop results are always directly aligned to the business goals in focus and can be used next day at the work floor immediately. The workshop participants are all equally involved in finding the business solutions.
 - LEGO® Serious Play® helps to build participatory practices within organisations through visual and physical co-creation. It is a lean forward, hands on technique, where everyone plays and enables 100% participation and 100% buy-in.

LSP can solve management and business issues

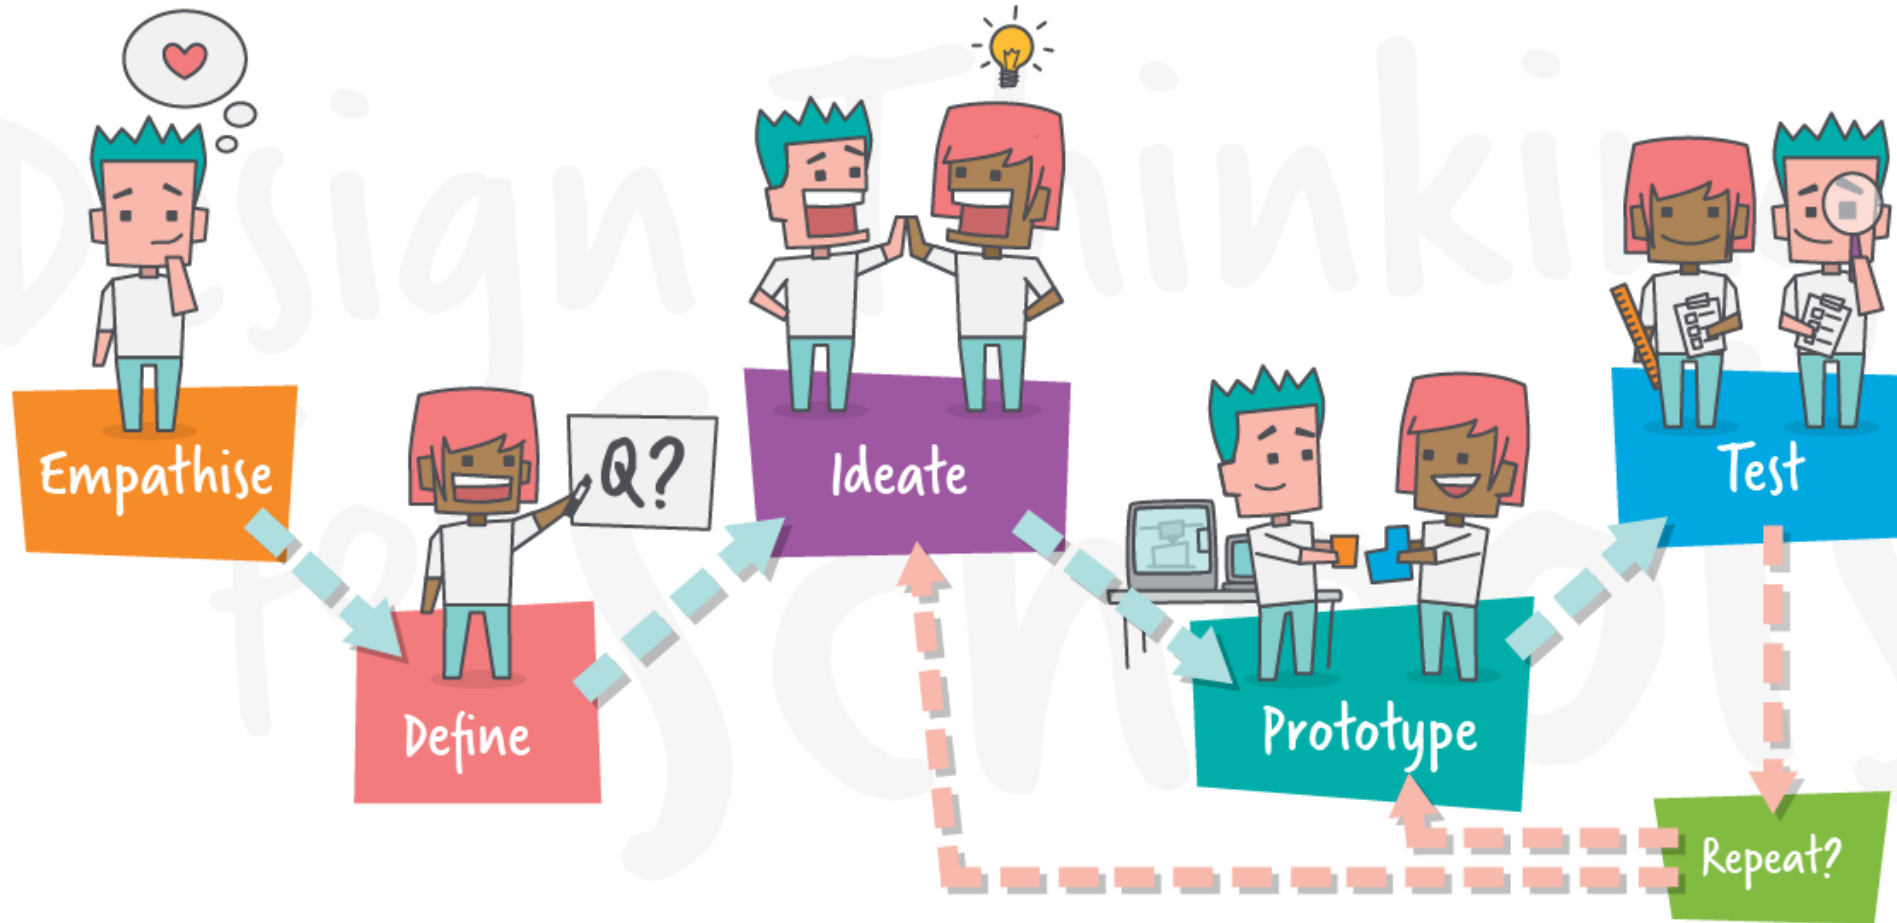

Design Thinking

Design Thinking is a humancentric approach to innovation that integrates customer emotion and empathy, the possibilities of digital tech and analytics, and the requirements for business success

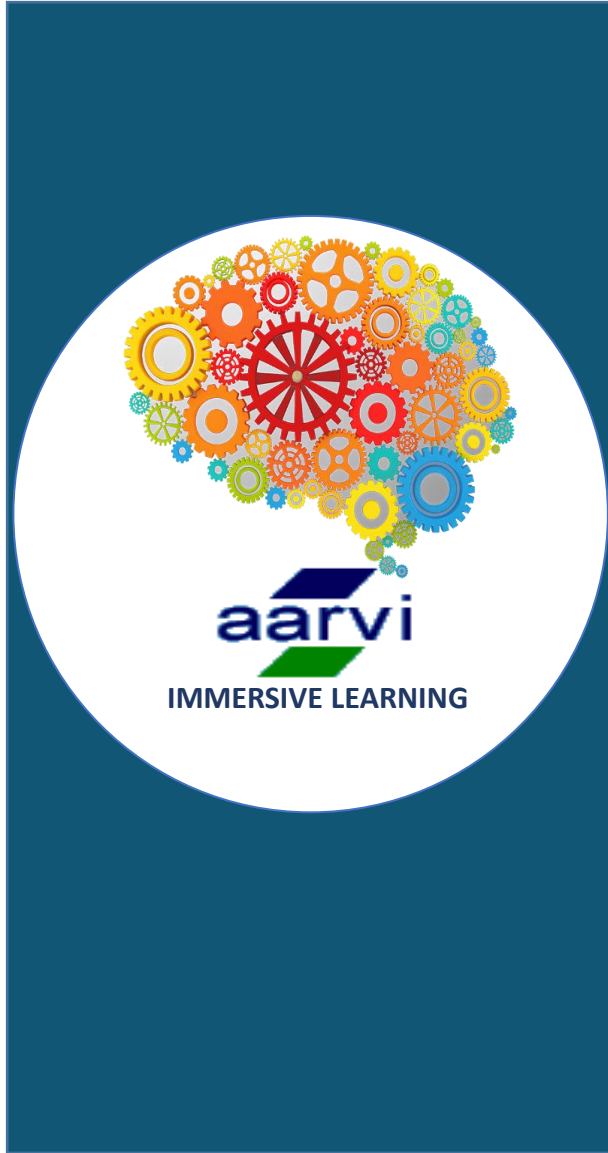

How does it work ?

Key Outcome of Design Thinking

- Use Storyboarding to visualize the future
 - Apply tools & methodologies taught during the session to see instantaneous results
 - Explore the world of human emotions to create Empathy maps and get stakeholder buy-in
 - Reimagine the future of your organization by crafting blueprints and strategic roadmaps for effective implementation

How does it work?

Neuroscience is the study of how the nervous system develops, its structure, and what it does.

The field's focus is on the workings of the brain, and although it was originally classified as a sub-discipline of biology, it has become a more interdisciplinary science that works closely with other fields such as mathematics, linguistics, engineering, computer science, chemistry, philosophy, and medicine.
